Prayer to St. Michael, Archangel

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Fr Phillip writes... The weather is definitely changing and the nights are closing in... but we look to that which brings us hope and comfort in the darkness. Our Faith, lived in the reality of our day to day lives is the source of comfort and the provider of hope for us. As nights draw in, or rain prevents working outside, we find ourselves being indoors, we have time to stop and reflect. To make an examination of our day is a wonderful way to close each day - to commend all that has happened to God's love, but to focus our tomorrow on God's providence.

Diolch o galon – Heartfelt thanks!

For your kindness and generosity in the Harvest Thanksgiving food donation you have made to the Missionaries of Charity – God reward your kindness!

Fundraising for our Parish

We are steadily progressing towards Christmas, and usually in parishes people are preparing not only for carol services and the liturgies, but also for things like the annual Christmas raffle.

It would be wonderful if we could have a Christmas raffle in St Joseph's, but volunteers are needed.

Can you help organise this?

Can you give advice and help?

Please have a think and speak to others, and we can organise it at the end of October—but only with your help.

MISSIO

The Red Mission boxes are now due for counting, so please bring in your red box and give it to Pat.

If you would like to join and have a box, Speak to Pat who will be happy to help. Thank you for your support!

Can you help with washing and ironing of Altar linens (the small cloths used by the priest during Mass)?

There is a process for doing this, but its not complicated! They are soaked overnight, and the water poured to the earth, then washed and ironed as normal.

Please consider if you can help and have a chat with me if you have any questions or ideas.

Many thanks!! Fr Phillip

There are November Dead lists at the back of the Church:

for you to complete and return, ready for them to be placed before the Altar for the start of November.

Please return them as soon as you can so that the names can be typed up and be read out at each Mass.

Please write anniversaries that fall during November clearly on the back with their appropriate dates – and please write clearly (as it's a challenge to decipher some handwriting) Thank you.

During the Month of November, we will pray for the people recorded in our book of remembrance (the November dead lists), and their names will be read out at each Mass. The blessing of graves will take place in the Crypt.

October—Month of the Holy Rosary

October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary and we are asked to rekindle or bring new life to our praying of the Rosary.

For some, this may be a staple part of Everyday life, while for others it is something less familiar. Some may pray it each day as a family, or group of friends, while others may remember only ever praying it as a child.

This month is a time to pause, and re-discover this ancient and comforting prayer, which is described as “a compendium of the Gospel”.

Please pray the Holy Rosary daily, and try and make it part of your regular prayer life.

May Our Lady of the Rosary pray for us all!

Rosary Prayer Cards are available in the porch

Maybe somebody would like to lead the Rosary before mass!

Welcome back to Monsignor Joe Cefai

Monsignor has very kindly agreed to come and celebrate the Masses at the Co-Cathedral for the next two weekends.

He will celebrate the Weekend Masses and two Masses during the week on both weeks.

He looks forward to see you all soon.
