Prayer to St. Michael, Archangel

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,
Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Fr Phillip writes… As the weather begins to change, we notice the seasons changing too, and the Church's year will soon draw to a close as we look forward to celebrate the joy filled Feast of Christ the King and the beginning of Advent. However, this Sunday, we remember in our prayers all who have died as a result or a consequence of war.

Armistice day which falls on Wednesday, marks the end of the First World War on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1944. Since then, the closest Sunday has been marked as one of remembrance for the dead of war—and we pray for all who suffered in subsequent wars. Let us remember especially to pray for peace in our world, as we remember the people of Ukraine and the Holy Land – May they now lasting peace. We ask Our Saviour—the Prince of Peace, to place in our hearts His peace, that we may have the grace to share it with those around us.

Planning a funeral for a loved one:

is not something we look forward to doing, however, it is inevitable that we will have to do this at some time. There are so many decisions to be made, and many options, and all along we want to do what we can to honour the wishes of the person who has died. One thing all of us can do is give some help and guidance to our families, to take the guess work of what we would like for our own funerals. This is of great help to grieving families trying to do the best they can to show love and honour us. These conversations are not something some families feel comfortable in having, so one option is to write down guidelines to help those we love plan our own funerals. There are funeral planning leaflets in the Church Porch, that will help you do exactly this. If this is something that might help you and your families, please take one and read it, and fill it in—then keep it in a safe place so it can be found when needed. Also, if you attend Mass, and your faith is important to you, please let your family know you would like a Requiem Mass. It would be tragic not to have this, if your loved ones do not practice, and yet you do. If you need any help, please talk to Fr Phillip, who will be happy to give advice.

We Pray for the Dead of War on Remembrance Sunday: We begin Mass on Sunday by keeping 2 minutes of silent prayer for all who have died as a result of War, before we sing our opening Hymn.

The Church asks that one Mass be celebrated as a Requiem Mass for all who died as a result of War. Let us pray for peace in our hearts, our homes and our world.

Why do we pray for the dead?

The second book of Maccabees tells how Judas Maccabee, the Jewish leader, led his troops into battle in 163 B.C. When the battle ended, he directed that all who had died to be buried. As soldiers prepared their slain comrades for burial, they discovered that each was wearing an amulet taken as booty from a pagan Temple. This violated the law of Deuteronomy and so Judas and his soldiers prayed that God would forgive the sin these men had committed (2 Maccabees 12:39-45).

This is the first indication in the Bible of a belief that prayers offered by the living can help free the dead from any sin that would separate them from God in the life to come. It is echoed in the New Testament when Paul offers a prayer for a man named Onesiphorus who had died: "May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day" (2 Timothy 1:18).

The month of prayer for the Holy Souls

Remembrance Sunday (8th November) we will begin Mass by praying in silence at the start of Mass, and at the end of the 10:00am Mass, a wreathe will be placed on the Memorial Cross at the entrance of the Cathedral for those killed in War.

A Mass for Deceased Bishops and Priests of the Archdiocese will take place on Thursday 26th November at 11:00am, and will be celebrated by Archbishop Mark and many of the Clergy of the Archdiocese. Please come along and join if you are able.

A candlelit vigil of light, will take place on Friday 27th of November at 6:30pm, where all the faithful departed are prayed for as all their names are read out, with time to lite candles in their memory, together with prayers and time for reflection.

Grave lights / Memorial lights: candles are available for sale at £3 each (in the Church porch), that can be placed on loved ones graves, or they may be placed in the baskets near the font, so that they can be lit before the altar and kept burning throughout the month. (Hopefully these will be available during the week – supply delay)
